Mmmmmmm Numb. 4057.

The Daily Courant.

Monday, October 25. 1714.

From the Bruſſels Gazette, dated Oct. 26.

Venice, October 6.

THE Chevalier Aloiſo Mocenigo, who is returned from his Ambaſſy to Conſtantinople, finiſhed his Quarantaine on Saturday laſt, and on Monday he was admitted to Audience of the Senate, to give an Account of his Negociations at the Ottoman Court. On Tueſday Morning the Sieur George Contarini made his publick Entry in Quality of Knight of St. Mark, and being attended by a great Train of Nobility in Scarlet Robes, went to the College to receive from his Serenity the Inveſtiture of the County of Laſſo and Aſcalona, which is hereditary in his Family; and notwithſtanding the Weather was very rainy, the Mercer's Street was richly adorned; and in the Evening the Theatres were opened and filled with Spectators. Among the Ships arrived this Week there are two from Cefalonia, the Captains whereof report that the Chevalier Giralomo Delfino, Proveditor-General of the Sea, was arrived in that Port; and that Admiral Erizzo was ſtill there with his three Ships of War, taking in Proviſions, in order to go and cruize againſt the Corſairs of Barbary. The Captain of a Ship who came from Smirna the 26th of Auguſt reports, that three Baſſa's in the Minor Aſia have taken Arms and entred the Field with 40 or 50000 Men, demanding the Head of the Grand Vizier for retarding the Arrival of the Caravans of Aſia at Conſtantinople.

Berlin, Oct. 16. The King went hence the 10th in a Poſt Chaiſe with a ſmall Retinue, and arrived before Noon at Stettin, where he found the Regiment of Prince Henry Frederick ranged in Battalia, who performed their Exerciſes and paſſed in Review before him. He afterwards entred the City, admitting Major-General Borken, Governor of the Place, to ride in the Chaiſe with him. On the 11th his Majeſty viſited the Fortifications, and Yeſterday in the Evening came back hither, where he will make ſome ſtay, to view the Battallion of Dhona before it marches out of this Garriſon. The Equipages of Baron Schlippenbach are arrived from Muſcovy, and that Lord, who has been at the Court of the Czar in Quality of his Majeſty's Envoy extraordinary, is expected in a few Days. Advices from Pomerania bring, that the Swediſh and Holſtein Troops begin to make new Motions, and that three Regiments of the Garriſon of Wiſmar are marched out to joyn them, which makes it believed the Swedes pretend to make an Irruption into Holſtein.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Oct. 25.

Hamburg, Oct. 19. The Daniſh Artillery which is brought from Drago to Frederickſoort, is there unladen. In the mean time Count Vander Nath, the Holſtein Counſellor and General, hath let drop in Converſation, that he had reaſon to hope there would be a Peace concluded within two Months.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Oct. 27.

Hamburg, Oct. 23. Divers Swediſh Battallions are marched from Wiſmar to Straelſund, and 'tis ſaid that thoſe Swediſh Regiments which were denied Paſſage through the Brunſwick Territories are ſeparated and divided into very ſmall Troops, whereby they paſſed privately, although it was intended to hinder them, and they are to aſſemble again at Wiſmar. The Holſtein Battallion which has lain ſo long at Eutin will alſo march to Straelſund, which makes it believed that General Ducker will form there a Swediſh Camp. Count Schonborn, the Emperour's Miniſter, dined two Days ago with the Adminiſtrator of Holſtein, and ſet out Yeſterday for Brunſwick, where tthe Conferences will ſpeedily be reſumed.

Francfort, Oct. 21. Laſt Week our Magiſtrates began to make a Reform in our nine Companies, 13 Men out of each being diſmiſſed. We hear form Deuxponts, that the Swedes continue to levy Soldiers daily.

Duſſeldorp, Oct. 23. Baron Schenck, the Poliſh and Saxon Envoy, being recalled, has been admitted to his Audience of Leave of our Elector, who preſented to him a Ring worth 2000 Rixdollars, and he is ſince gone home accordingly. We hear from Bensberg, that the Diverſion of Hunting being over, his Electoral Highneſs will come thence the 28th towards this Place. Aſſoon as the Difference is made up between the Cities of Cologne and Mentz, concerning the Tolls, there will be a Market-Boat paſs Weekly from Mulheim to Mentz, Francfort, and Heidelberg.

Cologne, Oct. 23. The Officers of the Imperial Troops which are here have Orders to provide themſelves with Horſes; in the mean time the three Companies of our City Militia will not be disbanded till thoſe Troops are actually gone. It is confidently ſaid, that the French will not deliver up Fribourg, Old Briſack, and Fort Kiel, till the Barrier in the Spaniſh Netherlands is regulated.

From the Gazette a la Main, dated Oct. 27.

Paris, Oct. 27. The Elector of Bavaria is gone to Compeigne, and his Brother the Elector of Cologne will ſpeedily be there alſo. There is a great reform of Troops making, and we underſtand the Number of the King's Forces will be much ſmaller than it was in the former Peace.
